FOOD
co-op

Finding it difficult to make ends meet? Do you want to be a member of the Co-op but are having a hard time being able to afford a membership? Already a member but are struggling financially? Have you heard about our Food for All programs?

Food for All was established to help folks in our community have access to healthy food, regardless of their economic status.

Applicants will need to provide proof of need. Accepted forms of supplemental income include SNAP/EBT, SSDI and SSI.

If you are approved, you will receive a notice via email and/or postal mail indicating the start date and what programs you have qualified for. Please keep in mind that if you are approved for LIMe, you will need to reapply each year at your anniversary date. Those receiving LEMon will only need to apply one time.

Our LEMon Fund (Limited Equity Monetary Fund) was created with equity funds from our inactive members. The Co-op will cover 75% of your equity investment so that you can enjoy all of the benefits of membership with a more manageable initial investment.

Those participating in the programs, if they are not already members, will need to make a $25 investment. The fees for which will be due in $2.50 increments every month. The Co-op will cover the other $75.

Our LIMe (limited income membership) program provides eligible member-owners with a standard discount of 10% on all items except gift cards, promotional products, and equity. The discount is funded through the donations made by fellow member-owners and customers at checkout via bag credits and the round up program.

Discount available on all items including Co+op Basics, Co+op Deals, flash sales, and member sales. Discount is not eligible for gift cards, promotional items, and equity.
